

Botanical Arts in School Gardens: Ink and Pigment Making, Eco-printing, and Daily Drawing Exercises

SAVE THE DATE

Thursday, October 10
9am - 3pm

@ Fibershed Learning Center
in Point Reyes Station

Learn how to make garden-inspired botanical art with your students. This workshop will explore ink and pigment making, and eco-printing with native plants, flowers, food scraps, and weeds, focusing on ingredients you can find and forage in your school garden and local landscape. $45 or $35 team discount
